WHAT DOES ECPM DO?

WE WORK AS CLOSELY AS POSSIBLE WITH PRISONERS SENTENCED TO DEATH

ECPM carries out and publishes legal investigations into death row (Morocco, Tunisia, United States). Our “Investigation into Death Row in the DRC” report received France’s leading Human Rights Prize.

ECPM supports the victims of the death penalty: prisoners sentenced to death, such as Serge Atlaoui and Hank Skinner, and their families.

ECPM encourages people to write to prisoners sentenced to death.

WE TEACH AND RAISE AWARENESS ABOUT ABOLITION

ECPM goes into schools to encourage pupils to support the issue through drawing competitions, introduction to journalism sessions and free class presentations – with the participation of specialists, prisoners previously sentenced to death or the families of prisoners sentenced to death. More than 10,000 middle and high school pupils have been involved since October 2009.

ECPM raises awareness among the public about the situation of minorities and vulnerable groups by taking part in Gay Pride, Fête de l’Humanité, Cities for Life, the World Day Against the Death Penalty, World Human Rights Day, etc.

WE STRENGTHEN THE CAPACITIES OF LOCAL ACTORS AND ACT WITH THEM

ECPM helps activists combat isolation wherever the death penalty persists by supporting the formation of national and regional coalitions against the death penalty (Morocco, Tunisia, Central Africa, Asia, etc.), as well as the creation of networks of parliamentarians and abolitionist lawyers.

ECPM supports efficiency among its local partners by organising training sessions and advocates at all political levels to support their work.

WE ADVOCATE WITH THE HIGHEST BODIES

ECPM is the first anti-death penalty NGO to obtain ECOSOC status which guarantees it a presence and the possibility of advocating at the very heart of the UN.

ECPM initiated the creation of the World Coalition Against the Death Penalty in 2002. Today, it has more than 150 members – NGOs, bar associations, local bodies, unions – across the world.

ECPM, together with the World Coalition, carries out advocacy and public mobilisation campaigns with political decision-makers (European Union, African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, governments, etc.).

Robert Badinter,
ECPM’s Honorary President and former Minister of Justice who abolished the death penalty in France in 1981, former Chair of the Constitutional Council, International Commission Against the Death Penalty.

“ECPM WORKS WITH POLITICAL LEADERS
TO ENSURE THAT CAPITAL PUNISHMENT NO LONGER BLIGHTS OUR FUTURE. ECPM IS TO
BE FOUND WHEREVER THE DEATH PENALTY
STILL EXISTS OR REMAINS PART OF LEGISLATION.”

WE BRING TOGETHER ABOLITIONISTS FROM ACROSS THE WORLD

ECPM is the founder and organiser of the World Congresses Against the Death Penalty. These events bring together more than 1,300 people representing the world abolitionist movement. Ministers, parliamentarians, diplomats, activists, civil society organisations, researchers and journalists come together every 2 years to strengthen their ties and draw up strategies for the future.
